IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Hiram Blauvelt Art Museum Presents
58th Annual Exhibition of The Society of Animal Artists

On November 17, 2018, The Hiram Blauvelt Art Museum will host the Society of Animal Artists, 58th Annual Exhibition. From oil paintings to sculptures you will find something for everyone who has an appreciation for art, especially wildlife art. This year featured artists include: Cynthia Fisher, Kathleen Dunn, Clinton Gray, Diane Mason, Scott Yablonski and many more. "The Hiram Blauvelt Art Museum is honored to be selected as one of the prestigious museums to host the Annual Exhibition of the Society of Animal Artists. We hope you will enjoy this year's selection of works as we encourage the general public and wildlife art enthusiast to visit us and experience how art can come to life" - James Bellis, Board President, Hiram Blauvelt Art Museum.

The Society of Animal Artists is an organization comprised of members who produce the best animal art in the world. The mission of The Society of Animal Artists is to promote excellence in the portrayal of animals, domestic and/or wild in art. The Society was founded in 1960. Over the past 50 years, works created by members of The Society of Animal Artists have established new standards of artistic excellence in fine art.
