57th Annual Exhibition of The Society of Animal Artists

On September 2nd through October 30th, 2017, The Hiram Blauvelt Art Museum will feature a selection of works from The Society of Animal Artists, 57th Annual Exhibition. The Blauvelt Museum is proud to be on the list of prestigious venues that will host this unique exhibit. Featured artists include: Tom Altenburg, Colleen Cotey, Anni Crouter, Pete Zaluzec and many more. "We always look forward to this exhibit and encourage local residents, wildlife art enthusiasts, schools and art education programs to visit this exhibit."— James Bellis, Board President, Hiram Blauvelt Art Museum.

The Society of Animal Artists is an organization comprised of members who produce the best animal art in the world. The mission of The Society of Animal Artists is to promote excellence in the portrayal of animals, domestic and/or wild, in art. The Society was founded in 1960. Over the past 50 years, works created by members of The Society of Animal Artists have established new standards of artistic excellence in fine art.
